Program: Canine Geriatrics by Lisa Bedenbaugh, PT, CCRP of North Georgia Veterinary Specialists

"Lisa brings over 25 years of human physical therapy experience to North Georgia Veterinary Specialists, particularly in the areas of orthopedics, neurology, home health and acute care. In 2003, she earned accreditation as a Certified Canine Rehabilitation Practitioner (CCRP) and began practicing small-animal physical rehabilitation. She has divided her practice between human and animal therapy (primarily companion animals).

She also serves as the Georgia state liaison for the American Physical Therapy Association's Animal Rehabilitation special interest group.

She lives near Atlanta with her husband, Scott, and their four dogs."

Meeting: The program will be followed by social time and a General Membership Meeting

What to Bring: Dogs are welcome, but please bring a crate if you bring your dog.
